Re: Reports Due / Candidate's Report / Finance Report / Written Disclosure

Board of Ethics:

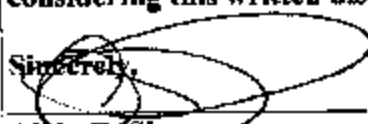

Per your letter postmarked 23 January 2009 (see attached exhibit "A"), this submission comes in an attempt to comply with same.

After visiting your website and reviewing the various forms thereon (see attached exhibit "B"), and after comparing same with the last report provided by me, it was concluded that none of the referenced reports "applied to me". This conclusion was based on the fact that: (1) I did not raise, receive, borrow or acquire any funds of any kind relative to my re-election bid (2) I qualified unopposed for this existing term (3) I did not have any fundraisers of any kind before, during or after qualifying (4) I did pay my own qualifying fee in the amount required by law (5) I did not (and do not) have any surplus or deficits of any kind relative to election / re-election and / or campaign contributions.

In that I am attempting to fully comply with state law and state ethics requirements, this submission is being made out of precaution and in case I am in error in any way. Do accept this as my written disclosure of the truth and as my official attempt to comply (if I am required to do so) under circumstances where I am uncertain as to the proper "form(s)" to use. If I am afloat of your rules, do advise.

Because I am "always working on [the] case" I thank you in advance for considering this written disclosure and for finding same timely.

Sincerely,

Alvin R. Sharp
District Judge - Division "I"

Certificate

I, hereby, certify that the above is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief and that same was sent via fax on 2/11/09.

ATTENTION ELECTED OFFICIALS

Have you become a "candidate" again since your last election? If so, you may be required to file an annual campaign finance disclosure report. Any person who, since prior participation in an election, has received and accepted a contribution or made an expenditure, or has given consent for any other person or committee to do so, with a view to influencing election to office in the future, whether or not the specific public office is known, is a candidate for purposes of the Campaign Finance Disclosure Act.

Annual campaign finance disclosure reports are necessary to report campaign contributions received and expenditures made in the 2008 calendar year for a future election. The report is due by February 17, 2009.

REPORTS DUE BY FEBRUARY 17, 2009

If you are required to file an annual report, you may download a blank Candidate's Report form at www.ethics.state.la.us/forms.htm.

NOTE: If you have a deficit or a surplus from a past election a supplemental report should be filed for that election in addition to the annual report. A separate package has been mailed to candidates with a deficit and/or surplus from a prior election.

Late fees of $100, $60 or $40 per day, depending on the office sought, will be assessed for late reports.
